With reference to Mr. R.H. Campbell's D.O. letter No. 267 dated 10th March 1911, I submit a sketch plan showing the interior of the Bangalore Fort with the existing buildings as well as the Chamarajendra Sanskrit College and the Sandal Koti. Col. J. Smyth's scheme involved the demolition of the latter two buildings, the site being utilised for the construction of a new Maternity.

2. The present Senior Surgeon is of opinion that no

£ 11 of notes
money should be spent on schemes of building a new Maternity or a Medical School at Bangalore until the construction of a suitable General Hospital in the City of Mysore becomes an accomplished fact. He suggests that all available extra money in the Medical Budget should be diverted to this end.

12 & 13 3. I agree with the Councillors that Col. Smyth's idea should be kept in mind and worked up to gradually as funds permit.

4. The desirability of having a new General Hospital in Mysore is an urgent matter and an effort will be made to make a provision in the ensuing year's budget. Plans are under preparation in the D.P.W.

2. On the same site plan as that on which I placed this Hospital I outlined a plan of a new Maternity. This is on the spot where now exist the Sanskrit College and the Sandal Kotai.

4 Of course we would have to become affiliated to the Madras University, and this necessity must always be borne in mind by the builders of new Hospitals and of a Medical School. While providing for the comfort of the patients, the fact that the Institutions are to form a Medical School must ever be borne in mind, so that facilities for teaching may be introduced along with the accommodation for patients.

It has fallen to my lot recently to be appointed member of a University Commission for inspecting a Medical -- School and the associated clinical Hospitals, and nothing -- impressed me more than the mistake which was originally made of scattering the School and Hospitals so wide apart. The consequences to students in a tropical climate in the way of physical exhaustion and waste of time can well be imagined, and there can be no doubt that if things Medical had to commence there anew, arrangements like those now in existence would not be adopted.

6 It is, so to speak, the beginning of things in Mysore, so let her not fail to profit by the experiences of her neighbours. It is my firm belief, what with the existence of the Indian Institute of Science, and the industrial development of Bangalore, consequent on an inexhaustible Electric supply, that Bangalore has a great future before it, and in regard to Medicine that it ~~would~~ one day take a foremost place in India, -- whither students will flee from the merciless climate of the plains. It is objected by some that Mysore Province will never be able to support a Medical School ^{an objection which seems to me baseless -} ~~at~~ at any rate a population of 5,000,000 persons ought to support a Medical School! But the proposal for a Medical School in Bangalore does not necessarily mean that the School will be a burthen to the State. -- Many such Schools exist elsewhere which do not cost the State in which they are situated anything, or at any rate only the buildings. Private benevolence there frequently finds an outlet in the founding of professorships, and so a school is gradually built up: and why not also in this Province. At any -- rate, the unique advantages of Bangalore as a home for a Medical School should never be lost sight of - And hence this -- memorandum.

MYSORE P. W. DEPARTMENT,

Bangalore, 14th November 1911.

DIARY No. 2378

Chief Engineer of Mysore,

LECTIC	meol
FILED	135-10
SERIAL	13

To

P. S. Achyuta Rao Esquire,

Senior Surgeon and Sanitary Commissioner.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that Colonel Smyth in para 2 of his memorandum on the future of Medicine in Mysore reported to Government that he had marked the position of a Maternity and Medical - - School on the site plan of the Minto Ophthalmic Hospital.

The Government called for this plan in their letter No. 7849, 135-10-7 dated the 23rd March 1911.

This plan was not to be had either in your office or with the Executive Engineer, Bangalore Division.

It was therefore arranged to prepare a proper plan of the Victoria Hospital compound, Minto Ophthalmic Hospital and the surrounding buildings in the Fort.

I now forward a tracing of this and request you to transmit the same to Government after marking thereon the position of the proposed buildings as per Colonel Smyth's memorandum.

This plan is reported to be required for submission to His Highness the Maharaja.

The favour of early transmission is requested.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
(Sd) K. Krishnairaj.
